PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE & CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

It is time to submit nominations for officers and directors of the association and for the several awards to be presented at the convention. There are the H. Fred Simpson Award for Numismatist of the Year and the Jimmy Jackson Award for the Junior Numismatist of the Year. Nominations are needed for President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, and three directors. The three directors whose terms are expiring are: Paul Green, Don Sharpe, and John Wills. Send nominations to to N C N A, Box 20653, Greensboro, North Carolina 27420-0653.

Spring is here in all it's glory, the sun is shining and the flowers are blooming. The coin collectors are coming out to the club shows and asking for and buying items for their collections. The market can not be too bad if this is a fact.

Have you signed up a new members lately? If not how about talking to that person who has just begun to collect and get him interested in joining a club and also the NCNA.

Now about the "SPEAKER'S PROGRAM", please send in your name and topic to Clark White, 2613 David Caldwell Dr., Greensboro, NC 27408. Mr. White will be working with me on this project. We hope to have a list of speakers and their topics in the next issue of the NCNA Journal.

We are expecting a good convention in Asheville this year, October 11-13, so be making plans to attend. Save a few days of vacation time for NCNA convention in beautiful Asheville in the fall.

See you at a Coin Show soon.

Autence A. Bason, President

The cover of this issue of the NCNA Journal has a photo of the 1796 Myddelton token in silver. The photo is courtesy of Auctions by Bowers and Merena which auctioned the token as part of the Marvin P. Matlock collection on 21-22 March. In his classic reference, The Early Coins of America, Sylvester S. Crosby states: "In beauty of design and execution, these tokens are unsurpassed by any piece issued for American circulation."

From the Bowers and Merena catalogue we learn: "The token dated 1796 was struck at Boulton and Watt's Soho Mint, intended for distribution by Philip Parry Pryce Myddleton, an entrepreneur who owned a large amount of land in Kentucky and who advertised in England for settlers to populate it. The venture was never completed. The tokens, said to have been engraved by Conrad Kuckler, probably never circulated."

The specimen shown was cataloged as Proof-62 and went to a floor bidder for $5,000 after spirited bidding.

The NCNA JOURNAL is the official publication of the North Carolina Numismatic Association and is published at Raleigh NC four times a year. Direct correspondence to: Halbert Carmichael, Editor, Box 5625, Raleigh NC 27650.

CHARLOTTE COIN CLUB

PROGRAM FOR JUNIORS

The Charlotte Coin Club held a very successful show at the Merchandise Mart on February 15 through 17. Besides holding a bourse with sixty-five dealers which drew good crowds and active trading, the club exhibited something that is more important for the long range health of the hobby.

The Young Numismatists of the Charlotte Coin acted as pages, earning in President Tom Marshall's words "enough to make a number of very nice acquisition to their own collections" as well as gaining valuable experience about what goes on at a coin show.

The twenty junior members of the Charlotte Club have taken an active and enthusiastic part in the Club's activities. Besides acting as pages they had their own table to buy, sell and trade coins.

Y. N.'s have presented several well received talks to the club at regular meetings. Darryl Lorocque talked about the coins of Switzerland,; Jason Ziebel talked about type coins, and Amanda Marshall gave two talks, one on buffalo nickels and one on the widow's mite.

Don Sharpe, who has worked for years to increase the participation of young people in numismatics, credited the success of the Charlotte program to the work of President Marshall and Vice President J. Dale Hege.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

DEAR SIR:

I would like to ask for the support of your readers for the candidacy of

John Eschbach of Smoketown PA for Governor of the American Numismatic Association

His platform contains seven planks: 1. the development and growth of junior collectors through JNA programs; 2. development of video programs for member use; 3. open ANA Board meetings; 4. reduction of annual dues; 5. fiscal responsibility and balanced budget, 6. utilization of the ANA museum as an educational tool for the membership and public; 7. limited terms for governors; 8. freedom for the Executive Director to manage the headquarters facility.

John joined the ANA in 1962 and has served as a club or district representative since 1968. He has been an exhibit judge since 1972 and spent a month as a volunteer at the ANA museum in 1988 attributing the ANA coin glass collection. John received the ANA Outstanding Club Representative Award in 1987.

John was president of his local club, the Red Rose of Lancaster PA and was instrumental in expanding the Central Pennsylvania Numismatic Association into a statewide organization.. He served as both president of PAN and as editor of its journal.

John Eschbach is a retired manager for RCA, a student of numismatics and a collector. He has nothing to sell except dedication to the hobby. Together we can prepare for a tremendous 21st century for the ANA and numismatics.

Yours truly
Gerald Kochel

. . .miles. That's how far our numismatic staff has traveled in the last year to promote the coin collecting hobby.

We're in constant contact with collectors and investors from all walks of life. The vast amount of information we receive daily is interpreted to bring you the up-to-the-minute news.

It takes an experienced, dedicated staff to do this week after week, issue after issue. That's a big reason why our flagship publication, NUMISMATIC NEWS, is recognized as the hobby leader.

Accurate reporting, timely delivery, the hobby's only full-time Washington News Bureau, the latest news and trustworthy advertising. It's yours, every week, in NUMISMATIC NEWS.

Delivering The NEWS — It's What We Do Best!
